Friday 17th June 2022

Dear Parents,

I am pleased to say, that even in this heat, we have had a really good week of behaviour and achievement. The children have managed their distractions well and I have been impressed with the standard of work they have produced. Year 4 in particular have had to be so resilient as they had to do the statutory times tables test under very challenging conditions!

The Christian value that we are exploring this half term is being Respectful. The Bible story, Noah, that we started the week with, helped the children to think about being respectful. However, they also told me that the story taught them about trusting God, being kind, looking after the oceans and animals and how to speak nicely to others. Rev'd Becs also helped us to think about the power of prayer.

Happy Book

Lilly wanted to thank Macy, Freya and Zac for 'hanging out with her!'; the children in both football clubs wanted to thank Shelley and Claire for their hard work; the infant football club coaches named Max as the star player of the week; we all thanked Nick Fulton for mending our climbing wall and making it safe again; Sophia thanked Amalie for being kind and funny and Miss Johnson wanted to say a big 'thank you' to the Year 4s for working so hard on their times tables. You made her very proud.
