MENUS – WEEK 2

Friday 2nd December 2022

Dear Parents,

We have had a lovely festive week in school where our youngest children have been rehearsing the Nativity in their costumes and the whole school helped to decorate the Christmas tree while singing Christmas carols. Rev'd Beccs also gave us a wonderful way in which we could spread the Christmas blessings to the people around us and we enjoyed doing the Mexican Wave to demonstrate how the joy could be passed on to others!

Reading Club

If your child attends reading club, please ensure they arrive no earlier than 8.30am. The cut off time for attending reading club is 8.40am. If you arrive to school after 8.40am, please wait in the playground with your child until the class teacher opens the classroom for the start of the school day.

Happy Book

Amalie thanked Bethany for spotting the little black dot in her eye. It turned out to be a tiny piece of metal which was removed with a needle! The doctor said Amalie was braver than mummy! Danielle said thank you to Isabelle, Hannah, Freya, Maisie, Ruby, Sienna and Lola for cheering her up when she was feeling left out. Mrs Brittain thanked Jacob, Reggie, Archie and Finley for arranging the hall and the music every day. Rose said well done to Isobel for being such a great play leader in Copeland class, the children really enjoy your games. The Poppy Appeal sent a thank you for the £67.35 that we raised for the service men and women. Sophia thanked Kayla, Ruby, Mrs Ashbee and Mr Downey for looking after her when she was hit by a rugby ball, and Kayla thanked Mr Downey and Poppy for helping her when she was hurt. Miss Woodwright, Mrs Camp, Mrs Gurteen and Miss Hewlett said well done to Owen for speaking into the microphone during the nativity rehearsals. Hannah thanked Lola for being nice and helping her feel better.
