Dear Parents,

Welcome back! It was so lovely to see everyone on Thursday and today with things returning almost to normal in school as well. I am always amazed at how well the children settle, even when the routines change. Thank you for your support in helping your children with this transition; they all look so smart too!

This morning we had our first Team assembly in 18 months, with all the children in the hall. We look forward to welcoming parents back next week and thank you for your patience while we settled the children this week. We celebrated the many achievements of the children, which happened during the summer holidays and prayed for those people around the world who are affected by war or extreme weather disasters. We also remembered to thank God for our safe return to school.

Happy Book
