MENUS – WEEK 1

Friday 3rd March 2023

Dear Parents,

The children have had a lovely week at school engaging well with their topics for this half term and having a wonderful World Book Day where we all dressed up and enjoyed some special reading activities.

We have continued to choose our Acts of Kindness every day during Lent; this morning's task was to write a list of all the people who care for us and to say thank you to them.

Parent Consultations

Next week we will be sending home the parent consultation letters for the week beginning 27th March. We have decided on a new format which means that consultation times are allocated by the school but sibling appointments are still kept close together on the same day. The letters will explain the new system with more detail and should be with you by the end of next week.

Happy Book

In the Happy Book this week; Claire thanked all of the children who took part in the football match on Monday for their great playing and superb behaviour during the game; Claire and Gill wanted to thank Esmee for her help during Football Club on Tuesday and to say well done to Sylvia and Owen for staying the whole time without Mummy; Reggie thanked everyone for looking after him at football; Mr Walker wanted to congratulate the Year 5 /6 players for their team spirit and for the mature way they handled the incident during the football match and Phoebe thanked Poppy, Hannah, Freya, Lilly, Jessica, Fay and Catherine for being kind to her.

Roll of Honour

Our Learning Heroes this week: Children who have demonstrated one of our Christian values without prompting from an adult.

Copeland: Charlie is now able to put his coat and lunchbox away all by himself, showing great independence.

Durrington: Scarlett has become very independent recently. She now comes into class each morning with a huge smile and she takes part in our class discussions.

Fitzwalter: Elsie has been working independently in phonics and with her reading and writing and we are really proud of her.

Quickbury: Sienna is so responsible when it comes to her learning. She has a notebook to help her remember important information and she has also been working hard in SATs club.

Well done children. You are all TERRIFIC!

Mrs Brittain's Star of the Week

My Star of the Week is Reggie for demonstrating the values of resilience and respectfulness in the most challenging of circumstances.

Birthdays: Today we sang the birthday song to Elsie who will be 8 years old this week.
