Friday 6th October 2023

Dear Parents,

We have continued to think about our Christian value of Generosity this week and how the children could teach others by sharing their talents and skills with others. It has been good to see that the children are recognising their own talents, but also how our Christian values are also important skills to have such as being kind and compassionate, being inclusive and being trustworthy.

As the term progresses, it has been lovely to see the children being so absorbed in their work and having their best work displayed in class. I am also very pleased with the children who are engaging so well with their homework tasks and feeling a sense of pride with their certificates, Dojos and stamps in their Learning Passports.

Staffing Update

Just to let you know that I will not be in school for a short while but during that time Mrs Ansell (Monday and Tuesday), Mrs Billett (Wednesday and Thursday) and Mrs Balloqui (Friday) will be deputising. If you have a concern or a question about your child(ren), please always begin with the class teacher who may know more about the incident and it may be easier to sort things out more quickly. Please take good care of all my staff in my absence as they are already doing a TERRIFIC job and will also have bits of my job to do as well!

Harvest Collection

The charity which collected the harvest donations were so overwhelmed by the amount of food we had donated. They thanked us repeatedly and let us know just grateful the families, who really needed the food, would be. Thank you for your generosity, especially during these hard times.

Happy Book

In the Happy Book this week; Miss Woodwright would like to thank Mrs Smith for donating spare clothes to Copeland.

Roll of Honour

Our Learning Heroes this week: Children who have shared their talents and skills with others to help them.

Copeland: Sienna has been a fantastic helper during PE where she has shown her talent in fastening buttons.

Durrington: Jack used his wonderful building skills to help his friends in Lego club to create some fab models.

Fitzwalter: Rose is so great at avoiding distractions and being focused on her work that she ensures her talk partner always is doing the same.

Quickbury: Patrick has helped others with their work once he had finished his own.

Well done children. You are all TERRIFIC!

Birthdays

This week we sang the birthday song to; Alfie, Ray and Poppy who will all be celebrating their birthdays on October 10th.

Mrs Brittain's Star of the Week

My Star of the Week is Lexi for sharing her wonderful talent of singing with the whole class.
