Friday 29th September 2023

Dear Parents,

We have had a lovely week of celebrations, of working well together and really being absorbed in our tasks, in order to produce work that we are really proud of. The school certainly has a calm feeling and any disputes which inevitably arise during break times, have been quickly resolved and behaviour has improved.

It was lovely to be able to celebrate harvest with so many of you in church yesterday. The enjoyment the children had in performing their songs and the words they were singing, helped us to remember to be thankful for all the things we can take for granted. Thank you for giving so generously with the harvest donations which are going to a local charity to help our local families.

Mathletics

We are enjoying the new format of Mathletics and the higher levels which the children can now achieve but the way in which the certificates are printed has changed so some children who should have been presented with a certificate this morning, were missed. I have tried to rectify this and have printed the missing ones ready to present for next week. However, this does not stop the children from continuing on Mathletics and achieving the higher levels as the system knows the levels that the children have reached. I have just got to work out how to find them!

Happy Book

In the Happy Book this week; I thanked all the children for their TERRIFIC performances in the church yesterday; Mrs Balloqui thanked Durrington class for their wonderful singing; Mr Hume wanted to tell his class that they are amazing for preparing both the class assembly and the harvest song this week and Miss Goodman thanked her class for showing such love and compassion when she had some sad news this week.

Achievement from Home and School

Home: Louie was so proud of his first swimming certificate and badge and Alfie was given the award of Sharp Shooter of the Week for his listening and driving skills in golf.

Our class Spelling Shed Superstar is Fitzwalter class with 73,455,498 points and our Top 10 Super Spellers are Charlie, Patrick, Max, Alfie, Noah, Edith, Tilly, Amelie, Amalie, Mya and Laura.
