MENUS – WEEK 2

Friday 30th September 2022

Dear Parents,

The school has been very settled during lesson times this week as the children are becoming more absorbed in their work and are trying hard to complete their tasks well. The standard of presentation is also very high and I would like to thank the teaching staff for helping the children to take such pride and enjoyment in their learning.

We have continued to think about our Christian value of Thankfulness and in our prayers, we have been thinking about people who may not have some of the things we have such as a home, a loving family and food to eat. Thank you for all the generous donations of food which we will take to the Food Bank next week.

It was so lovely to see so many of you at the harvest service on Thursday. I am so proud of the wonderful performances each class gave; they had such little time to learn all the words and they all performed with such confidence. Well done children; You are TERRIFIC.

Happy Book

In the Happy Book this week; Kayla wanted to say thank you to Mr Downey for making the lessons so much fun; Zac's Mummy wanted to thank Mya for the lovely gift that she gave to Zac; The KS1 football coaches wanted to say well done to all the children especially Darcy, Aviana and Zac; Mr Downey thanked Kayla and Charlie for always being ready for their learning all week; Mrs Dasalla was so proud of Jacob's hard work with his reading; Lilly-Mai wanted to thank Danielle and Macy for playing with her and Catherine for cheering her up when she was down; Mrs Dorrian wanted to thank Phoebe for helping a younger child at lunch.
