Week 3 Menus

All clubs will run next week subject to the weather and availability of the staff.

Dear Parents and Carers,

This week there were so many important festivals and events and next week during half term, that we hardly had time to think about them all. However, we did begin thinking about Easter, one of the most important festivals in the Christian calendar, as the beginning of Lent is next Wednesday. Rev'd Dawn Jewson and Caroline Harding held an Ashing Service in school on Thursday. I will once again be inviting our School community to take part in the 40 Acts of Kindness challenge which we will engage in fully after half term. We also celebrated 100 years of women getting the vote, Chinese New Year and Valentine's Day.

Midday Assistant

We are once again in need of relief midday assistants for just over 7 hours a week. If you can spare any time during the week, even if it is for one day, please come and talk to the office staff or myself about joining our friendly and enthusiastic team.

Fundraising

Thank you for all your suggestions of fundraising ideas. I will present the ideas to the School council and PTFA in our next meetings.
